

Beauty and the Beast Story

 Belle  lives  in  a village  in  France  with  her  father Marcel.  They  are  poor.  Fairy  Fantastique  looks after  the village  and  helps  everyone  to be  good.  Madam  Pimpernel  is evil  and  wants to  become  Queen  of  France.  Prince  Etienne is  Prince  of  France.  He  lives  in  a  castle.  He  has two  servants  called  Flambe  and  Coggins.  Sugar  Kane  and her  son  Harry Kane  work  in  the  kitchen  at  the Prince's castle.

Prince Etienne wants to find a wife. He wants to marry

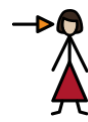

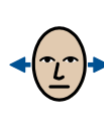

Belle, but she doesn't want to marry him. He is rude and mean.

Madam Pimpernel disguises herself as an old lady and asks the Prince for help. He says no. She puts a spell on him that turns him into a beast. To become human again, the Beast must love someone. That person must  love the  Beast.

 Marcel  gets  lost  in the  forest. He  goes to the  the Beast's  castle to  ask  for help. But the  Beast  locks him  in a  dungeon.

 Belle  goes to the  castle to  rescue her  father. The   Beast tells  Belle  she  can  swap places with  her  father, but she  has to  stay  in the  castle  forever.  Belle  agrees.  Belle hates the  Beast.

After some time, the Beast starts to be kinder. Belle and the Beast start to like each other.

Madam Pimpernel casts a spell to make Marcel sick.

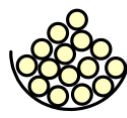

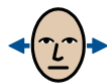

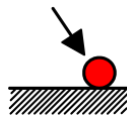

Belle sees her father in a magic mirror. She is very worried. The Beast lets Belle go to visit her father.

When Belle is away, Madam Pimpernel takes over the castle. There is not much more time for the Beast to find someone to love. He is very weak, and will die

soon.

That

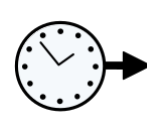

means

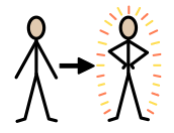

Madam

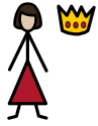

Pimpernel

will

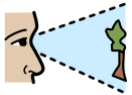

become

Queen of France!

Belle

sees

the Beast

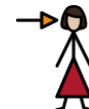

in

the

magic mirror.

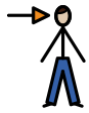

She

rushes

to help

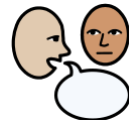

him.

The

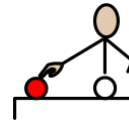

Beast

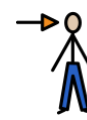

tells

Belle

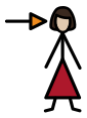

that

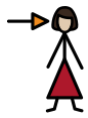

he

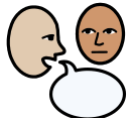

loves

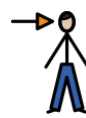

her.

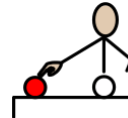

She

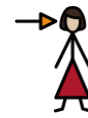

tells

him

that

she

loves

him

too.

The

spell

is

broken

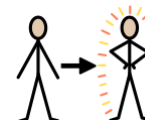

and

the

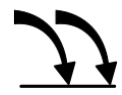

Beast

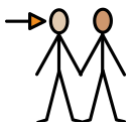

becomes

human

again.

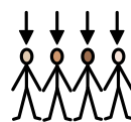

They

get married

and

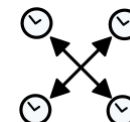

everyone

lives

happily

ever

after.